DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendment filed on April 13, 2005 has been entered. No claims have been amended. No claims have been canceled. Claim 20 has been added. Claims 1-20 are still pending in this application, with claims 1, 18 and 20 being independent.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 1-19 are objected to because of the following informalities: the phrase in a parenthesis renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations in the parenthesis are part of the claimed invention. For example, in claim 1, limitation "(a receiving telephone of a subscriber or a receiving communication system)" is indefinite. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 2614

4. Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ilcisin et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,880,770).

Regarding claims 18-20, Ilcisin et al. teach a method for utilizing display phone set-up time to provide third party controlled messaging in which messages from the third party in the form of video images remain on both videophone displays for a variable length of time. It is noted that the messages are transferred to both two parties (caller and called party) prior a call connection is established. In other words, a connection request to the called party happens after providing messages to both two parties (Abstract; column 3, lines 26-42; column 4, lines 1-7). Further, Ilcisin et al. teach that messages can be selected to distribute to the parties by the system (column 5, lines 37-42; column 8, lines 13-50).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-17 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under Claim Objections, set forth in this Office action.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-19 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
